

Course Title	EC TRADE POLICIES
Course Code	EST 5110
Credit Value	4
Lecturer	Mr Malcolm Bray B. Com. (Hons.) M.Sc. Econ. (York)
Method of Assessment	Assignment / Exam
Course Textbook	El-Agraa [2001] The European Union: Economics and Policies [6 th edition]
Other References	Additional references will be provided at the end of each lecture

Course Outline

The course provides the foundations for the economic analysis of trade related issues. The emphasis is on providing a rigorous framework to enable students to analyse critically EC trade policies and assess how these impact on member states, other developed countries and developing countries.

The following topics will be covered:

1. Trade policy framework
2. Regional trade agreements
3. Labour market issues
4. Environmental issues